

Penzance is the Place to Visit in 2017

Forget Jamaica and Australia according to the New York Times, Penzance is the place to visit in 2017.

The New York Times has recently published '52 Places to Go in 2017' and ranks Penzance 14th on the list ahead of places like Australia, Madagascar and Jamaica. This is a great accolade for the West Penwith Town and to Cornwall as a whole.

“Penzance provided a glimpse of Poldark Country” This was how Journalist and contributor to the article David Shaftel described the Cornish Town.

Also mentioned in the article was The Jubilee Pool. This was described as an Art Deco inspired pool and one of the last Saltwater Lidos in Europe. The triangular public pool was built in the 1930's and has recently undergone a 3.73 million renovation.

Here's the Top 15 of the New York Times' 52 places we should visit in 2017:

1. Canada	9. Detroit, Michigan
2. Atacama Desert, Chile	10. Hamburg, Germany
3. Agra, India	11. Marrakesh, Morocco

4. Zermatt, Switzerland	12. Greenville, South Carolina
5. Botswana	13. Pedregal, Ecuador
6. Dubrovnik, Croatia	14. Penzance, Cornwall
7. Grand Teton National Park, Wyoming	15. Osaka, Japan
8. Tijuana, Mexico

If Penzance is the place to visit in 2017, why not book in to the Hotel Penzance and enjoy the luxury accommodation that this 4* Edwardian Townhouse can provide.

A selection of rooms with breath-taking sea views are available along with our large Restaurant which will cater for all of your dining requirements, breakfast, lunch or dinner.

We are only situated five minutes from Penzance Town Centre so the Hotel is a perfect base to experience the delights of Penzance and surrounding areas.

Call 01736 363117 or fill out our booking form to check availability.

